

Congress of the United States
Washington, DC 20515

July 18, 2016

The Honorable Ashton Carter
Secretary of Defense
1000 Defense Pentagon
Washington, DC 20301

Dear Secretary Carter:

Thank you for your continued cooperation with the Congressional review of the decision to locate the Joint Intelligence Analysis Complex (JIAC) at Royal Air Force Croughton.

In a recent interview, staff from the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence and Committee on Oversight and Government Reform were for the first time made aware of certain documents relevant to the JIAC location decision. Specifically, committee staff learned that an April 2011 briefing presented to the Commander of U.S. Air Forces, Europe, presented five potential locations—all in the United Kingdom—for the JIAC, and that an April 2011 letter from the Commander of U.S. Air Forces, Europe, to the Commander of U.S. European Command, recommended locating the JIAC at Royal Air Force Croughton.

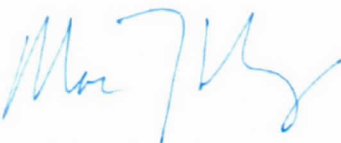

Please provide the April 2011 briefing and letter to our committees no later than July 29, 2016. Additionally, although we appreciate your work to facilitate interviews with Defense Department personnel, we note that you have not yet provided certain documents previously requested by Congress, including the September 2011 Analysis of Alternatives for the JIAC location, previously requested on March 3, 2016, and June 14, 2016.

We appreciate your prompt attention in addressing this matter.

Sincerely,

Devin Nunes
Chairman
Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence

Mac Thornberry
